Overview

Overview of the Southwest Region Leadership Institute

The Southwest Region Leadership Institute is a program presented by the Leadership Team of the Southwest Region of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. in conjunction with the Grand Chapter under the direction of the current Southwest Regional Director Soror Pamela M. Rogers. The Leadership Institute is directed toward sorors who are in positions or aspire to be in positions of leadership with programmatic and/or fiscal responsibilities within the organization.

Mission

This Institute is designed to be an ongoing program within the Southwest Region of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Through a competitive application and interview process, the Southwest Region Leadership team will select twenty-five (25) sorors, 13 collegiate and 12 alumnae sorors, to participate in the Southwest Region Leadership Institute. The chosen applicants must agree to participate fully in the Institute's planned activities.

The Southwest Region's Leadership Institute provides a solid foundation for sorors who are, or will be, taking on leadership roles. In addition to building and/or enhancing leadership skills, the program will increase knowledge and reinforce confidence which should ultimately increase the region's future leaders. Each participant will be assigned a mentor.
